FEATURED RESOURCES

The Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery, or ASVAB, is a series of tests developed by the Department of Defense that are used by the branches of the military to determine whether you're eligible to enlist and what jobs you qualify for.

The ASVAB Challenge is a smart phone app by the US Army that gives practice with the test, helping to understand the format and types of questions on the ASVAB used by the Army.

The Kentucky Advising Academy (KAA) provides free professional development resources for school counselors, Family Resource/Youth Service Center (FRYSC) coordinators, and all professional educators. There are online webinars, a podcast, and in person opportunities across the state. October’s webinar will be about scholarships. For more information, to register, or sign up for their emails click below.

Here’s an opportunity to share with your students.

KY Wesleyan College encourages college visits as an important step in students deciding which school is best for them. Because of this, they will offer a $1000 Campus Visit Grant to any incoming fall student that visits campus beginning June of the year before.
